

About Lisa Edwards Keane

Lisa Edwards Keane is a Licensed Professional Counselor licensed by the Board of Examiners in Counseling of the State of Alabama. She is also a Registered Play Therapist (RPT) and National Board Certified Counselor (NCC).

Ms. Keane earned her Bachelor of Science (BS) degree in Human Development and Family Studies with a focus in adolescent development from Auburn University. She also earned her Master of Arts (MA) in Marriage and Family Counseling from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. Ms. Keane has completed additional graduate studies in Counselor Education from the University of Alabama at Birmingham.

Ms. Keane is certified to administer the PREPARE/ENRICH battery of pre-marital and marital inventories. Ms. Keane is also an administrator of the Achenbach System of Empirically Based Assessments (ASEBA). Ms. Keane has also been trained in Critical Incident and Stress Management (CISM) in the school, community, or individual setting. She has utilized CISM in school and communities settings after a traumatic event has occurred.

She utilizes a brief-solution focused framework while pulling also from many different schools of counseling. This allows her to tailor her counseling and be eclectic in approach her individual client's needs. Ms. Keane has experience working with children, teens and adults. Ms. Keane also believes it is very important to integrate faith into her counseling by using prayer, scriptures, and theological studies. Ms. Keane has worked at Pathways Professional Counseling since January of 2007.