

About Rebekah Clark

Rebekah Clark is a Licensed Professional Counselor (license # 2718) through the Alabama Board of Examiners in Counseling. She received her Bachelor's degree in Psychology from Troy University in 2001 and her Master's in Community Agency Counseling from Troy University in 2005. She is currently pursuing her Ed.S. in Counseling and working toward becoming a registered play therapist under the supervision of Agnes McKeen LPC, RPT-S.

Ms. Clark is from Prattville where she works in the Prattville Association office for Pathways Professional Counseling. She also works in the Clanton association office and has a private practice in Prattville. Ms. Clark has experience working with children, adolescents, adults, families and couples using a variety of techniques including cognitive behavioral, psychoanalytical, play therapy and client centered all with a Christian base and biblical focus.

Ms. Clark has been in the counseling field for 10 years and has been with Pathways Professional Counseling since March 2010.