

About Steve Trader

Steve Trader is a Licensed Professional Counselor by the Board of Examiners in Counseling in the State of Alabama. He is also a National Certified Counselor by the NBCC.

Mr. Trader received his Bachelor of Science degree in Social Science from the University of North Alabama. He received a Master of Science degree in Counseling from Jacksonville State University. He received a Master's degree in Theology and uses this degree to assist him in the incorporation of a Christ-centered approach to counseling. Steve uses many counseling theories in an eclectic approach to counseling and always strives to honor God.

Steve has served as a pastor and in other staff positions in churches across the state of Alabama over the last twenty years.

He takes appointments for Pathways Professional Counseling in Linden, Grove Hill, and Selma. He works in cooperation with the various associational offices within these cities.

Mr. Trader and his wife, Susie, have two children and currently reside in the Clarke County area. They are very active in the church where they attend.